Congratulations!

You are now an Honourable Diplomat/ Peace Ambassador and have Diplomatic Rights regarding all matters COVID-19

Should these be challenged, please take all the details of the person(s) challenging you and make sure that you diplomatically inform them that they are in breach of many aspects of the law and codes as per our Ordinance and Order and that they will face charges at the ICC in their personal capacities. You also need to take careful note of names, rank, position, times, dates and places with photographic evidence where possible. You will then compile a statement from this evidence. There is a printable Charge sheet on the website should you encounter any serious incident.

If travelling on domestic or international flights, ensure that you inform the airline well in advance that you possess a card as an Honourable Diplomat/Peace Ambassador for all COVID related matters. Please present proof of your card to the respective airline. Note that an airline captain may not override your rights in this capacity.

Always keep calm and stand your ground in your capacity as an Honourable Diplomat.

Thank you and we look forward to hearing about your experiences.
